

DRURY SPORTS INFORMATION

The Drury University Sports Information Office is responsible for the dissemination of athletics information, including statistics, media brochures and guides, and for all interviews involving the 15 intercollegiate sports on campus, in addition to maintaining and updating the program's new athletics website, www.drurypanthers.com.

Scott Puryear is beginning his fourth year as the Sports Information Director at Drury after spending more than 20 years in the local media as a sportswriter and columnist with The Springfield News-Leader. Puryear continues to co-host a sports radio talk show from 9 to 11 a.m. each weekday morning on JOCK 98.7 FM, as well as serve as a contributing writer for Big Sports magazine and the series of Ozarks Prep Preview magazines. He can be reached at spuryear@drury.edu or (417) 873-4097.

Eric Pannell, a native of Lebanon, Mo., is in his seventh year as the assistant SID and is also the director of the intramurals program at Drury. He can be reached at epannell@drury.edu or (417) 873-7374.

The fax machine number in the Drury Sports Information Office is (417) 873-4098.

The Drury Sports Information Office is located in the upstairs southwest corner of Weiser Gym.

Please contact either Scott or Eric for interview requests involving the coaches or student-athletes of Drury University, and every effort will be made to accommodate those requests.

